

Travel along the trails of the Official Barn Quilt Capital of NC®

Heading North on Hwy 421 from the NC Coast...

From NC Hwy 421 North, as soon as you pass the rest stop on your left, go about 1 mile, and turn right on Union School Rd. in Clinton to begin your trail experience.

Trail Stop #1: 1500 Union School Road, Clinton (barn)

Head down Union School Rd. about a mile, and you will come to a stop sign. Keep straight and you will see Register Farms on your right, where you will find these two patriotic barn quilts on their barn.

Trail Stop #2: 5009 Moseley Avenue, Clinton (storage building)

Turn left on Williamson Rd., (Register Farms is on the right). Drive for approximately 1 mile. Take a quick left and then a quick right onto Moseley Ave. Continue about 1.3 miles. Pass Triple M Beef Farm on the right. Drive a little further, and see the floral design barn quilt on the white storage building on your right. Very pretty!

Trail Stop #3: 4970 Moseley Avenue, Clinton (white barn)

Also on Moseley Ave., just past the storage building on the right, look immediately to your left, and you will see a barn quilt on a white barn on your left. This design is reflective of farming and livestock.

Trail Stop #4: 1378 Taylors Bridge Road, Clinton (Beartrack Farms)

Continue on Moseley Ave. and take an immediate right onto Mount Gilead Church Rd. Drive about 2.9 miles. Turn left onto Taylors Bridge Rd. (421 North). You'll pass by the Gilead Baptist Church on the right and Twiddle Dee Farms on the left. Shortly after Twiddle Dee Farms, you will see Beartrack Farms on the left. Look for a large red barn to see this quilt.

Trail Stop #9:

709 College Street, Clinton (Sampson County Arts Council)

Stop by the art gallery and see the historic home of Dr. Small, a prominent resident and local physician who lived in Sampson County from the 1920's through 1971 when he passed away, leaving the home deeded to Sampson County. This is our Signature Barn Quilt for Sampson County. It is located at several locations throughout Clinton.

Day Tripping, Shopping and Dining in Historic Downtown Clinton

We have some great shops in Clinton! Continue on College Street, and at the stop light intersection, you will see High Cotton on corner. Leave High Cotton, turn right, and head down to Jordan's Shopping Center. On the right you will find Matthews Gifts.

Circle back around and head to Historic Downtown Clinton, where you will find unique shops. It's a MUST to have lunch at Alfredo's Ristorante Italiano, located at 101 Wall Street, Clinton. For shopping in Downtown Clinton, there are plenty to choose from! Simply NC is right across from Alfredo's where you can find unique gifts from NC, and don't forget enjoy a delicious ice cream for your trip back.

We hope you have enjoyed the Sampson County Barn Quilt Trail. Please plan another trip, and take another trail to see more beautiful quilts in our county.
